DID YOU KNOW

Cable ties are so out of this world, they've been to Mars! In 2021, NASA used nylon cable ties on their Perseverance Rover to secure its equipment. They were chosen for their light weight and reliability when it comes to withstanding harsh environments; which now includes outer space!

Cable Ties

- The economical way to secure bundles from 5/8" to 4" in diameter
- All nylon 6/6 construction features lightweight, high strength, and a wide temperature range
